YOUR STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE

to obtaining a real estate license

STEP 1:

Complete Your 135-Hour Required Education

The California Department of Real Estate (DRE) requires license applicants to complete 135 credit hours of education in the following:

- Real Estate Principles 45 hours
- Real Estate Practice 45 hours
- One additional DRE-approved course:
We recommend: Legal Aspects of Real Estate 45 hours

We offer complete licensing packages in a variety of delivery formats. No matter which option you choose, you will receive the comprehensive education experience that you would expect from us.

STEP 2:

Apply for Your Salesperson Exam/License Application

- One set of electronic fingerprints is required.
- For more detailed information, go to:
<http://www.dre.ca.gov/Examinees/ComboSales.html>

STEP 3:

Take the California Salesperson Licensing Exam

- Consider taking our Exam Prep Course prior to sitting for the exam.
See page 9 for additional information.

STEP 4:

Receive Your State License

- A salesperson is licensed to act on behalf of a broker and may not act as a real estate agent independently. A salesperson may only work for one broker in California at a time.
- Consider finding a broker early in your licensing process.
